Diwali Dhamaka Dance Competition Terms and Conditions

ACCEPTANCE OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

The team captain must initial each page on the bottom right corner and sign the last page acknowledging that all the competing members understand the following rules. The team captain accepts the full responsibility of the actions of his/her team members and the team as a whole. All members must adhere to all guidelines, deadlines, rules, and regulations for the Diwali Dhamaka dance competition.

If at any time during the competition, be it before, during, or after the show, a team member violates any rules, that member can be asked to leave immediately, regardless of whether or not he/she has performed. The team must perform without this individual. Upon discretion of the organizational committee, a team may also be disqualified if the following rules and regulations are not adhered to. If any of the following rules and/or regulations are violated, the organizational committee may revoke the prizes from that team post competition.

1. Each member of the team MUST sign the liability release form when registering. If this paperwork is not completed, the participant will NOT be able to compete.
2. By signing below, the team captain is stating that the individuals he/she is representing during the competition are the same individuals that are listed on the original registration form and who have signed the "Waiver and Release Form." If a team captain purposefully falsifies this information, the team will automatically be disqualified, and legal action may be taken against the team captain.
3. Any collegiate or independent team is allowed to submit a registration packet. The Diwali Dhamaka organizers do not discriminate against any team based on its collegiate affiliation or location.
4. All members of the team must be at least 18 years of age. Documentation proving the authenticity of your claim will be required before an exception is provided to your team.
5. All members of the team must be 29 years or younger.
6. All team members welcome to join the Official Mixer on the date mentioned for OFFICIAL MIXER in the deadline section of the online form. at 8:00pm. The cost of admission to the mixer is $7 per person. It is MANDATORY that each team is represented at the Official Mixer, and is suggested that all team members are present for the purpose of team spirit and camaraderie.

Diwali Dhamaka Dance Competition Terms and Conditions

7. All “non-performing” team members MUST be approved beforehand. “Non-performing” members may include: a gopher, lighting technician, sound technician, etc.
8. All team captains MUST check-in before 7:00 PM, date mentioned for CAPTAINS MUST CHECK-IN BEFORE in the deadline section of the online form.
9. There is a MANDATORY PRE-EVENT MEETING on the day before the show that all the team captains MUST attend. Other team members are welcome to attend this meeting.
10. There is a MANDATORY DRESS REHEARSAL on the day of the show. You will be informed of your performance slot at the MANDATORY MIXER.
11. PERFORMANCE TIME LIMIT: All teams are limited to 8 minutes for their performance. THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS, so please do not seek any. If your team goes over this limit, your team will be penalized by the judges. Each team’s performance time will begin when the team makes its very first impression. This may be live music, a singer, music from the audio track, or some other movement that implies that the performance has started.
12. If any team goes over the allotted 8 minutes, points will be heavily deducted from the team’s overall score and if the team goes over by more than 30 seconds, the team will be automatically disqualified.
13. The audio track which is provided must contain ALL the music on one continuous track. All breaks or pauses must be pre-mixed onto the track. We will not stop or break your track upon request. The whole routine must be on one continuous track.
14. Audio tracks MUST be submitted no later than date mentioned for AUDIO TRACK in the deadline section of the online form. If your audio is submitted later than this date, Diwali Dhamaka is not responsible for any difficulties with the audio if they may occur. No audio will be accepted on the day of the show, or in the week prior to the show. We advise teams to listen to the track before sending it, to ensure there are no problems with sound quality. Submitted audio should be clearly labeled with the name of the team. Submitted audio will become the property of the Diwali Dhamaka organizers. Audio can be submitted online ONLY.

If your audio is not received by the date mentioned for AUDIO TRACK in the deadline section of the online form, 1 point per day will be deducted. If we do not receive the audio tracks by date mentioned for WAIVE RRELEASE FORM in the deadline section of the online form, the team will be not be able to participate in the competition.

Diwali Dhamaka Dance Competition Terms and Conditions

15. Each team must bring two extra copies of their CD in case any technical difficulties arise.
16. Intro Videos must be submitted no later than date mentioned for INTRO VIDEO in the deadline section of the online form. Intro Videos for all teams must be no longer than 60 seconds. . Video must be submitted online ONLY and in AVI format.
If the video is not received within the deadline, IRCC will use a generic video for your team.
17. On the day of the show, the performers must report backstage at their assigned time: Teams in the first three acts MUST BE DRESSED AND BACKSTAGE BY 5:30 PM. The remainder of the teams has until 6:45 PM. Failure to comply will lead to penalization by the judges.
18. IRCC needs to be notified before the deadline if Glitter, confetti, or any other items will be used. Points will be deducted if you do not notify prior to IRCC.
19. No hazardous props may be used. Each team MUST submit a prop request no later than date mentioned for PROP REQUEST in the deadline section of the online form to ensure the prop may be used during the show. There is no guarantee that your prop will be permitted onstage, so you MUST get prior approval. A props list must be submitted online ONLY. Also to ensure that you can get a reply from us, please try to give us reasonable time to inquire about the use of the prop; we are obligated to ask the Broward County Convention Center if the use of certain props are permissible, thus we need ample time to receive an answer from them in order to get back to you. There are no guarantees that we will get an answer back to you if we have not received ample time to get an answer from the Broward County Convention Center.
20. Oversized props will be permitted on stage, as long as they do not require more than 60 seconds to set-up during show time. If a team spends more than 60 seconds setting up, points will be heavily deducted from the overall score for “delay of show.”
21. All teams must use discretion while selecting costumes. All members of the teams should wear long shorts or tights beneath their costumes, so not to be revealing.
22. Any delay of the show will NOT be tolerated. The stage will not have an open close curtain, thus as soon as the stage coordinator signals the end of the performance, your team MUST start picking up your props and begin leaving the stage. The stage coordinator will count 10 seconds after the mix has ended and will then call the end of the performance, the team is permitted to begin clean-up before the signal but not after.

Diwali Dhamaka Dance Competition Terms and Conditions

23. Each team must have a minimum of 8 dancers. Musicians and other members of the team are permitted and may add to this number but the number of dancers cannot be less than 8.
24. The maximum number of people on a roster is 25. This includes all gophers, managers, musicians, and dancers.
25. If any team member, or a team as a whole, uses the stage time inappropriately, the team may be disqualified or penalized by the judges. You will have 15 minutes allotted to your team during rehearsal.
26. Cultural Committee of the IRCC will choose qualified judges to judge the competition. Cultural Committee of the IRCC will only subtract points for penalties incurred for late submissions or violation of Diwali Dhamaka rules.
27. Members of the Diwali Dhamaka event organizers, or affiliates, will not judge the competition.
28. All scores will be ranked based on the judging criteria scoring system, which will be provided. The judges will discuss the scores and decide on placing performances.
29. The judges will ONLY use the judging criteria as a guide, but will make the final decision according to their discretion and overall impression.
30. All belongings are the responsibility of the team members. Cultural Committee of the IRCC does not take the responsibility of any props, personal items, costumes, etc. left back-stage.
